On
Faculty feedback

Sr. No.	Focal Point	Suggestions	Action Taken
1.	Teaching learning method & expectations of Current syllabus	The courses for the academic year 2023–2024 will be offered as electives throughout the semester, in line with the updated curriculum.	Syllabus reframing workshop was attended by faculty members.
2.	Bridge the gap between current global scenarios & academics.	The updated syllabus emphasizes the need for greater industry exposure. Therefore, the institute should engage industry professionals to conduct workshops in their areas of expertise to address this gap.	In response to faculty members' suggestions, a series of workshops on relevant current topics were organized.
3.	Regarding updating and upgrading of professional skill.	It is recommended that faculty members actively participate in various workshops and activities to stay updated and maintain proficiency in their respective fields.	Faculty members are encouraged to participate in workshops and are provided with financial assistance to attend seminars and workshops.
4.	Regarding Reference Materials	The books and other reference materials available in the library are adequate and meet the faculty member needs.	In addition to this, new books have been added to the library's collection.

Alumni feedback

Sr. No.	Focal Point	Suggestions	Action Taken
1.	To include recent technologies in syllabus	Alumni feedback on the syllabus framing suggested the inclusion of a more up-to-date course in the curriculum, which they believe would be highly beneficial.	The newly designed syllabus now includes advanced subjects like Git, Github, Gitlab and Bitbucket, and other emerging topics. The Training & Placement Cell has also organized a series of training sessions focused on current academic trends.
2.	Participation in the work of the Institute.	Alumni have expressed interest in actively engaging in the institute's activities and contributing by sharing their knowledge and expertise.	We have registered alumni association. As part of our regular curriculum practice, we collaborate with alumni to organize workshops, seminars, interaction sessions and other events.
3.	To arrange soft skills training program to groom students employability skills	Alumni recommended organizing a variety of training programs aimed at enhancing soft skills development.	The institute conducts various training sessions and communication lectures to enhance students' soft skills as an integral part of the regular curriculum.
