Event Name :- Sickle Cell Anemia Checking Camp

Date :- January

Event Detail:-

To raise awareness about sickle cell anemia and its prevalence. To provide free and accessible Checking services to the community. To educate individuals about the importance of early detection and management of sickle cell anemia.

The Sickle Cell Anemia Checking Camp, a collaborative effort by Mukesh Patel Charitable Trust, RCPET's IMRD, Shirpur and Government Health Department, marked a crucial stride in community health and awareness. This joint initiative aimed to address the prevalence of sickle cell anemia in the region, as this disease is mostly deserved in tribal area. Hence their checkup was specially organized for tribal area students of all colleges, providing free screenings, raising awareness, and educating the community.

The success of the camp lies in its multifaceted approach. By leveraging the expertise of both the charitable trust and the educational institution, the initiative not only identified cases of sickle cell anemia but also adopted a discriminating sense of awareness within the community. The collaboration represents the potential impact that can be achieved when educational institutions and charitable trusts join forces for public health causes.

Dr. Vaishali B. Patil Director, Assistant Director Mr. Manoj N. Behere, Dr. Manoj B.
