

E-Bulletin OCT-2015

RCPET's Institute of Management Research and Development, Shirpur

Director's Message:

The month of November and December is an exam season hence on this time I want to share few things with students via this edition of E-Bulletin. We all know final exams and assignments are important – they can decide whether you pass the course or not. As you study for your tests but treat every day like a priceless journey of discovery and learn new things. Exams will come and go, but knowledge is priceless. We want you to do well in this exam so you can reap its rewards for the rest of your life. Students don't procrastinate! Use your time wisely and make sure the work you need to do is done before you go do something with your friends. Don't forget that the main reason you are in college is to get an education and better yourself, so make that your top priority. Believe in yourself and your hard work. Remember perseverance always pays. I wish you all the best for your exam and your future career and may you observe success in all your endeavors. Also I wish all of you a very "Happy Diwali" filled with success, happiness and many moments to cherish."

Book Exhibition at IMRD

Book Exhibition was organized by IMRD Library Committee on 10th Oct, 2015. The main objective of this event was to give an idea to all the first year UG & PG students about the library collection and various subject books related to their academic year. A book exhibition is an important part of education. It helps to broaden our kingdom of knowledge. A book exhibition forms the habit of reading, writing and taking care of books. It is a device to spread culture, education and knowledge. All the first year students of UG and PG courses visited the book exhibition. It changes their outlook on life and widens their domain of learning.

The whole library committee gave their best efforts to make this event successful.

“Diwali Greetings”

Diwali, the festivals of lights signifies the end of all negative things. It is a time of joy, splendor, brightness and happiness. I wish each one of you would embody a lamp and spread joy and light on this pious occasion. Make this Diwali beautiful and peaceful by nurturing the environment, going green and making the earth much better and beautiful place to live in. This festival has little to do with crackers and so it's time for us to make a difference by uniting and taking a pledge to celebrate green and prosperous Diwali and making a new beginning of enlightenment. Here are some suggestions to make this festival a symbol of light, prosperity and happiness.

- Light traditional diyas than electric illuminations as it will only use up electricity.
- Place handmade scented candles around the house to make it all glittering and bright.
- Use natural decorative items instead of plastic which are detrimental for environment.
- Wrap your gifts in handmade paper, jute or cloth bags.
- Make this Diwali special and more meaningful by sharing your happiness with underprivileged. Donate things to them that are no longer useful for you. You must definitely spare some time to light up their life.
- Instead of throwing out all your rubbish, take a pledge to recycle it and use it for decorating your houses.
- Decorate you houses with rangoli and alpana, a traditional way to welcome the Goddess of wealth and prosperity.
- Don't throw used flowers into any river rather dump them somewhere to avoid water pollution.
- Spend Diwali together with your friends and family to make it memorable.

“May this Diwali enlighten your life and help you step into a cleaner and brighter world.”
