Yoga Day Celebration

Yoga day was celebrated in IMRD on 21st June 2017 for all students from UG and PG as well for teaching and non teaching faculties.

International day of yoga is also called as the world yoga day. Yoga in India is considered to be around 5,000 year old mental, physical and spiritual practice. Yoga was originated in India in ancient time when people do meditation to transform their body and mind. Launching a particular date of practicing yoga all across the world and celebrating as yoga day was initiated by Hon. Prime Minister of India Mr. Narendra Modi to the United Nations General Assembly.

With the same enthusiasm Institute of Management Research and Development celebrated the "International Yoga Day" on 21st June, 2017. Welfare Department of IMRD, all the faculties and staff members were invited to celebrate "International Yoga Day" on college ground at 06:30 am. On this occasion the team of Art of Living was invited for Yoga Demonstrations. Different types of asana like Virasana, Vajrasana, Utkatasana, Tadasana, Urdhvamukhasana, Trikonasana, Sukhasana, shashankasana, Makarasana, ArdhaMatsyendrasana etc. were practiced enthusiastically by participants. IMRD always conduct such kind of workshops, seminar on yoga; diet etc. The Student's Welfare Department's team and all staff members gave their great support to make this event successful.

Tree Plantation by IMRD

Tree plantation was done by Institute of Management Research and Development on 3rd July 2017. The purpose of tree plantation is to save the endangered environment and to beautify our life. Our environment is very important to us because it influences our life. We depend largely on the environment for survival. Environment is our surrounding which makes up the relationship of people, animals, plants, and even non-living things. As a part of our Corporate Social Responsibility IMRD has taken initiative to plant multiple trees at the Diploma College garden.

All the UG and PG faculties, students from all departments participated in this activity and planted multiple trees. All the teaching and non-teaching faculties gave their great support to make this event successful.

Library User Orientation and Book Exhibition

Library User Orientation and Book Exhibition Program was conducted in IMRD for the 1st year UG and PG Students on 29th and 31st July 2017. In this program all the newly enrolled students were given information regarding the library facilities and policies.

The main objective behind this was:-

- To welcome newly enrolled students in the Institute library.
- To create awareness on library resources, facilities and services among new users.
- To motivate students for making optimum use of library collection.
- To know the whole process of library functioning.

This program helps new undergraduates as well as postgraduates quickly to learn about the key library services and research tools they will need to use during their course. During such event librarian explains book distribution policies, library time table, awareness regarding the OPAC, awareness regarding the e-resources also. The library staffs also encourage students to select books and suggest those books for different courses and competitive exam. Instructions and presentation on use of library resources available and range of services provided by library were highlighted. Information on rules and membership enrolment is provided. This program helps the students to inculcate reading habits and self study among them. Exhibition of available books in the library was arranged for the students to get an idea of the library collection. It helped the students to know the multiple titles of the specific subject. It also helped students to know the books other than syllabus.
