Yoga Day Celebration

Yoga day was celebrated in RCPIMRD on 21st June 2019 for all students from UG and PG as well for teaching and non teaching faculties.

International day of yoga is also called as the world yoga day. Yoga in India is considered to be around 5,000 year old mental, physical and spiritual practice. Yoga originated in India in ancient times when people did meditation to transform their body and mind. Launching a particular date of practicing yoga all across the world and celebrating it as yoga day, was initiated by Hon. Prime Minister of India Mr.Narendra Modi in the United Nations General Assembly.

With the same enthusiasm Institute of Management Research and Development celebrated the “International Yoga Day” on 21st June, 2019. Student's Welfare Department of RCPIMRD, all the faculties and staff members were invited to celebrate “International Yoga Day” at Institute ground at 06:30 am. On this occasion the team of art of living was invited for yoga demonstrations. Different types of asana like Virasana, Vajrasana, Utkatasana, Tadasana, Urdhvamukhasana, Trikonasana, Sukhasana, Shashankasana, Makarasana, ArdhaMatsyendrasana etc. were practiced enthusiastically by participants. RCPIMRD always conduct such kind of workshops, seminar on yoga, diet etc. The Student’s Welfare Department team and all staff members gave their great support to make this event successful.

Helping Hands Activity

In view of the horrific situation in Kolhapur, Sangli and Satara, Institute of Management Research and Development have been trying to help the flood victims. A helping hands activity was conducted from 9 to 11 August 2019 with the joint support of Amalner Cyclist Group.

Hundreds of citizens from different villages were disrupted due to the floods that came to different rivers in Kolhapur, Sangli and Satara districts. This activity was carried out to help them in such a natural crisis. In this social activity, many helpers gave food packets, clothes, biscuits, grains, sugar, oil, batteries, candles, matchboxes, toothbrushes, paste, food plates, soaps, shawls, bed sheets, etc. The items were collected from Shirpur and sent to the needy in Kolhapur.

The responsibility of this social activity was initiated by Dr. Vaishali B. Patil, Dr. Manoj Patel, Registrar Mrs. Vaishali Gorle, Mr. Amit Patil, and Mr. Manoj Patil. The mission began on Friday, August 9. For this, a stall was set up in the premises of the RCPIMRD, where the students of the organization were collected materials. The teachers and non-teaching staff of the Institute have provided materials such as clothes, bed sheets, and biscuits etc.

All materials were carefully labelled and packed by non-teaching staff and volunteer students of Institute so that the material would not be damaged and easy to distribute. All this material handed over to Dr. Chandrakant Patil, member of Cyclist Group, Amalner on Monday 12th August and from there it sent to Kolhapur.

Dr. Vaishali B. Patil thanked everyone for their generous and overwhelming response to make this initiative successful.
